Inaugural Survivor Unified Team Challenge huge success for Janus

On June 16, Janus Developmental Services, Inc. had its annual Client Appreciation Day/Summerfest Celebration with a Hawaiian theme. The event consists of having a dunk tank so their clients can "dunk" staff, which is always a huge hit. Janus also held a cookout followed by a dance. This year, the company decided to "mix it up" a little.

Everyone at Janus is big fans of the show "Survivor," especially of Indiana native contestant Rupert Boneham, so they decided to have their own version of the Survivor Challenges. Four teams consisting of two staffers and eight clients had to choose members to compete in four separate events. The events were an obstacle course, a water throw challenge, a tower building challenge and a "mystery" food eating challenge. This new event was a huge success and will be incorporated into next year's celebration.

The winner of this year's event was the Honolulu Hooligans Team, consisting of Connie, Wanda, Ryan, Mary Beth, Beth, Tim, Bill, Mike, and Cameron.
